

Welcome to www.apexambulance.com

Apex Ambulance serves residents and medical facilities in the areas of New Jersey including Monmouth, Mercer, Middlesex, and Ocean counties. Apex Ambulance's wide array of transportation services are based on your medical needs.

Apex Ambulance is the preferred transportation solution for residents of Marlboro, New Jersey, who are in need of medical transportation, wheelchair transportation, or non-emergent transportation. We are equipped with a fleet of Basic Life Support vehicles, driven by professionally trained and state certified service medical technicians. We also provide wheelchair transportation services with our lift-equipped vans, as well as transportation for day-to-day necessities, such as trips to the mall, medical appointments, or even long distance journeys across the state line.

Whatever your transportation needs may be, we have you covered. We are always sensitive to your needs, making sure that our friendly staff will welcome you aboard and send you off with a warm, professional demeanor. They will also be attentive to your needs when it comes to being where you want to be on time. With a state-of-the-art tracking system, we can ensure that you arrive on time for your appointments. You do not have to put up with late public transit schedules, overcrowded buses, or depend on family or friends to get you to the places you want to get to. Call Apex Ambulance today, and find out more about our hospice and nursing home transportation services, so that we can help you fulfill your everyday tasks with comfort and ease.

We like to tell our customers to let us handle everything, especially in situations where ambulance transportation is required. Our well-equipped and state-certified EMTs have the experience needed to get what can be frightening situations under control. They will load the patient into the vehicle, and get them safely to where they need to be, and under highly qualified watch.
